Temporarily Disable Absence Notifications

Written by Sam Support | Last published at: February 17, 2026

Attendance Settings allow your school to temporarily disable Absence Notifications for a specified period.

This is useful when:

- Exams are taking place and standard roll marking is not in operation
- A year group or class is on a school trip
- Students have not yet been marked as School Activity
- There is a non-standard school day (e.g. events, mock exams, special schedules)

Disabling notifications prevents parents from receiving absence alerts during these periods.

How to Access Attendance Settings

Step 1: Log In

- Go to uniqueschoolapp.ie and log in.

Step 2: Go to Attendance Settings

- Under Attendance Overview, click Settings
- Locate Disable Absence Notifications
- Click View Settings

Turning Notifications Back On

To re-enable Absence Notifications:

- Click Delete beside the specified date range
- Or if you set the range correctly, the system will auto-resume

Important Note:

If you delete today's date and the Absence Notification time has already passed, notifications will not be sent for that day.

Adding a New Disable Date Range

Step 1: Click Add

- Click Add (top right of the screen).

Step 2: Choose Scope

You can disable notifications for:

- The Whole School
- Specific Years
- Specific Classes

Use the filters to apply to the appropriate group.

Step 3: Select Date Range

- Choose the From date
- Choose the To date

Step 4: Submit

- Click Submit to save.

Best Practice

- Only disable notifications when absolutely necessary
- Always ensure School Activity is marked where applicable
- Remember to re-enable notifications promptly once normal attendance processes resume. If you applied the correct range when setting it up, it will auto-resume.

This ensures parents continue to receive accurate and timely communication.
